edication

Memories we shall carry with us when we graduate—memories of our years at Guilford and of the friends we've made. There is one whom we will remember throughout our lives. One who is always around to give us an encouraging word, the extra boost we need at times. One who shows genuine interest in his students, and who by his Christian example guides us towards more useful citizenship. One who understands our problems and keeps his door open at all times for any who want to talk or need advice—a friend to us all.

To Dr. Edward F. Burrows we, the seniors, gratefully dedicate this, the 1959 Quaker.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Clyde A. Milner

". . . Dr. Clyde A. Milner has contributed generously of his many talents and energies to the growth of education, culture, and the spiritual life of the City of Greensboro and its surrounding communities . . . and is held in high regard by educators throughout the nation . . . "

George H. Roach, Mayor
City of Greensboro
In honor of Dr. Milner's twenty-fifth year as President of Guilford College

Twenty-fifth year

On Thursday, October 16, and Friday, October 17, educators from near and far gathered at Guilford College for the Guilford College Convocation on Liberal Education, honoring our president, Dr. Clyde A. Milner, in his twenty-fifth year as president of the college.

Thursday morning Capus Waynick, Adjutant General of the State of North Carolina, introduced Dr. Hollis Edens, President of Duke University and first speaker of the convocation. At the special luncheon Dr. Franklin H. McNutt, Dean Emeritus of the Graduate School of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro, spoke to the guests and commended Dr. Milner for his contributions to education. Stringfellow Barr, Professor of Humanities, Newark College of Rutgers University, gave the afternoon address.

Howard Brinton, Director Emeritus of Pendle Hill, was the central figure of Friday morning's program. The Ninth Ward Lecture by J. Floyd Moore, Associate Professor of Bibical Literature and Religion at Guilford, spoke on Rufus Jones.

The A Cappella Choir under the direction of Carl C. Baumbach, sang at these four major gatherings.

Visitors and friends gathered in Founders Hall to greet Dr. Milner and to show their appreciation for his outstanding work.

Board Of Trustees

The Board of Trustees is the backbone of our college policies, headed by Robert H. Frazier of Greensboro. Pictured here are other members of the board before their fall meeting. Seated are Nereus C. English from Thomasville, Joseph D. Cox from High Point, Eunice A. Parker from High Point, and Chairman Robert H. Frazier. Standing are Edwin P. Brown from Murfreesboro, Horace S. Haworth from High Point, L. Elton Warrick from Goldsboro, A. Wilson Hobbs from Chapel Hill, F. Duval Craven from Greensboro, William A. Wolff from Winston-Salem, and David J. White from Greensboro. Luby R. Casey from Goldsboro and Hugh W. Moore from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania were not present when the picture was made. New members appointed since are Ruth Newlin Coble from Guilford College and B. Clyde Shore from Winston-Salem.

AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

A student's scholarship, his participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, and his promise of future usefulness are the basis for selection to Who's Who, the highest honor a senior at Guilford College may receive. The nine seniors recognized this year are, left to right, Heea Halder, Mary Ellen White, Carol McBane, Dave Hardin, Jo Ann Hundley, Gertie Murrow, and Graham Allen. Unable to be present when the picture was made were Bill Crofton and Chester Haworth.

New techniques in football practice?

But we need some variety in the choir!

Snow time-no study time.

Don't laugh; philosophy 11 will get the best of you, too!

The memories of three years are behind and the hopeful dreams of a senior year are not far ahead as the juniors are nearing the last turns of their paths at Guilford. Leading the juniors were Secretary Pat Garner, President Charles Chase, and, standing, Vice-President Larry Holland, and Treasurer Wade Massey.

ACTIVITIES

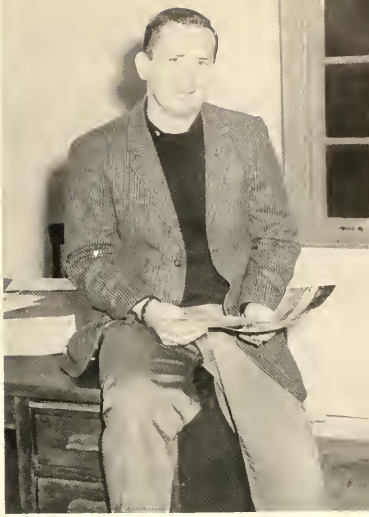
The deadline is drawing near, and Editor Virginia Cox checks to see that each page is complete before packing the material and mailing the final pages to the publisher.

Business Manager Anne Carmichael checks through the files, seeing what bills have been paid and what entries have to be made in the book.

Carolyn Robertson, statistician, Marilyn Gainey, cutline writer, and Nancy Ackley, picture identifier, check the last group of photographs to be sure each person has his correct name.

Quaker

Layouts . . . copy . . . pictures . . . and the 1959 Quaker is ready for the press. The staff has worked hard, especially as deadline time nears, to compile the material of the year's activities. Changes are constantly being made in hopes that the annual will be the best yet. Headed by Editor Virginia Cox, Business Manager Anne Carmichael, and Photographer Dwight Thomas, the book provides a comprehensive and enjoyable account of a year at Guilford College.



Dwight Thomas, the campus photographer, is also in the final rush, being sure the pictures are of first quality.

Kaye Burton, Feature Editor, Jerri Waldrep, Administration Editor, Gaye Burton, Class Editor, Janet Smith, Activities Editor, and Sid Hart, Athletics Editor, are making the final comparisons of their sections to be sure there are no duplications and all the copy and pictures are in.

Managing Editor Lillian Burrow works late one night to layout the ads before the paper has to be at the printers.

Despite the worry of deadlines, by-lines, and headlines, the Guilfordian is always published every two weeks, thanks to the capable editorship of Margaret Haworth.

Looking over the results of their work are Andrea Rogin, Associate Editor, Miles Frost, Advertising Manager, and, standing, Dwight Thomas, Photographer.

Guilfordian

Guilford bi-weekly newspaper, the Guilfordian, gathers the campus news and provides a permanent record of all events concerning the college. Editor Margaret Haworth has worked many long hours along with the entire staff in providing the students and faculty with an excellent newspaper; the problems of stories and deadlines did not mar the quality of the paper.

The next edition's articles finished, the sports writers take a coffee break in the Union. Around the table are Lynn Hundley, Charles Watson, Sid Hart, and Bill Wearmouth.

Business Manager Bill Smith and his wife Betty keep the Guilfordian's debits and credits straight.

The Tad

The Tad, Guilford's literary magazine, made its appearance for the first time last year. The organization is for anyone who is interested in creative writing of all kinds and also provides discussions in various fields of study. Contributions to the magazine are read and evaluated by the members of the council, and they select the best stories and poems by students and faculty members to appear in print. Those on the council are, first row, left to right, John Potter, Betty Jean Steele, and Treasurer Earl McNeal. Second row are Howard Walton, Assistant Editor Bill Wearmouth, Editor Bill Bloom, and John Hewlett.

Student Affairs Board

The SAB is the co-ordinating board for the campus organizations which receive allotments from the student activities fee. At the monthly meetings affairs such as the Campus Chest Drive, elections, and the budget are discussed and attended to. Each organization has one member sitting on the board to represent them. Seated are Assistant Secretary Sue Drake, Chairman Bill Crofton, Secretary Betty Ann Pringle, and Vice-Chairman Heea Halder. Second row: Marty Allen, Gertie Murrow, Virginia Cox, Advisors Dr. Purdom, Dr. Williams, Miss Lasley, Dr. Victorius, and Margaret Haworth and Jo Ann Hundley. Last row: Dean Jordan, Graham Allen, Jimmy Boles, A. T. Barbee, Charles Chase, Bill Bloom, Jordan Washburn, Carol McBane, and Dave Hardin.

Women's Student Government

The Women's Student Government is the governing organization of the women students, concerned with their regulations and projects the women as a whole sponsor such as the talent show in March. This year was the first time the dorm councils went into effect; they are composed of the class representatives and house president of the respective dorms and lessen the load on the WSG Council. Each year meetings are held with all the women for suggestions and possible rule changes.

The four students elected by the women to lead them during the year are, left to right, Treasurer Lynn Warren, Vice-President Clara Montgomery, President Carol McBane, and Secretary Margie Haworth.

The WSG Council is composed of four class representatives and the house president from each dorm, a day student representative and the four officers. Seated are Carol McBane, Margie Haworth, Clara Montgomery, Cynthia Moore, Lynn Warren, Mary Ellen White, and Miss Davis, Dean of Women. Standing are Coreen Case, Anne Taylor, Juli Trimble, Marty Allen, Pat Garner, Patti Sue Hackney, Jane Coltrane, Sara Atkinson, Lee Stoddard, Bobbi Wilson, Jo Ann Hanks, Ginette Bourdareau, and Mary Ruth Shropshire.

Representatives from each section in Cox and each floor in English and Archdale and the officers form the MSG. First row are Graham Allen. Brad Little. Bill Crofton, Dick Wiley. Standing are Bob Modlin, Bob Burns, Jake Caviness, Tom English, John Meroney, and Ed Bannigan.

The Men's Student Government is the unit on campus which is concerned with activities pertaining to the men. Aside from the regular disciplinary procedures, they provide the student body with a lighter side of life such as the early morning Men's May Day. Graham Allen was this year's able leader.

Taking it easy for a change is Graham Allen, President of the MSG during the year. Behind him are Brad Little, Secretary-Treasurer, and Bill Crofton, Vice-President.

Men's Student Government

A Cappella

The Guilford College A Cappella is well known along the Eastern Seaboard for their concerts. On their spring tours they have gone as far north as New York, and this year they went south to Florida via the eastern part of North Carolina, giving concerts there and in South Carolina and Georgia. Nearer home they are in demand by various churches and meetings and schools all through the year. With Mr. Baumbach as director the sixty-three voice choir has a large repertoire and provides much enjoyment to their audiences.

Mr. Carl C. Baumbach and Mr. Jerry Smyre check over some arrangements so the choir can prepare for their concerts and spring tour.

These outstanding voices add much to the quality of our choir. The soloist are, first row, Ruth Hodgin, Mary Ellen White, Betty Ann Pringle. Sara Jane Robertson, Caroline Primm. On the second row are Mr. Smyre, Bob Edwards, Charles Chase, and Patti Sue Hackney.

The big wheels of the choir are, clockwise, Mr. Baumbach, director; Patti Sue Hackney, Vice-President; Mr. Smyre, director; Dorcas White, Secretary; Dave Hardin, Business Manager; Dean Jordan, President.

Choir

The choir committee is the governing organization of the choir. Elected by the group, its members are, seated, Mary Ellen White, Sara Jane Robertson, Margie Haworth, Joyce Neal, Dorcas White, Dean Jordan, Patti Sue Hackney, Caroline Primm, Betty Lou McFarland, Lee Stoddard. Standing are Betty Ann Pringle, Bob Edwards, Earl Jones, Kermit Robertson, Charles Chase, Lee Andrews, Dave Hardin, and John Juchter.

Student Christian Association

The SCA this year was headed by Betty Lou McFarland, Corresponding Secretary; Jo Cook, Recording Secretary; Jo Ann Hundley, President; and Maurice Raiford, Treasurer. Not pictured is Vice-President Earl Jones.

The Student Christian Association is the co-ordinator of the religious organizations on campus. The group sponsors the Sunday School Class which meets in the Hut at 9:30 with various students and faculty members teaching the class. Also the SCA plans the annual Religious Education Week as well as discussion groups of student interests and concerns.

Young Friends

One of the jobs of the Young Friends this year was the editing of the monthly newspaper for young Friends over the nation and the world. Putting the pages together, addressing and stamping them are, left to right, Jim Newlin, Howard Hinshaw, Janet Andrews, Jimmy Childress, Georgia Childress, Peggy Sue Chilton, Co-Editor Dorcas White, Bob Matthews, Karen Ljung, Business Manager Lee Andrews, and Earl Jones. The Young Friend is published each year by a different Quaker college. Millie Marshall was also a co-editor, working at another table and not shown in the picture.

The Methodist students on campus join for regular meetings during the year. Members are, seated, Betty Willey, Betty Lou McFarland, Kaye Burton, and Jo Cook. Standing are Mr. Devlin, Advisor, Bob McKee, Ronnie Matthews, Charles Davis, Andy McGlamery, and Jimmy Boles.

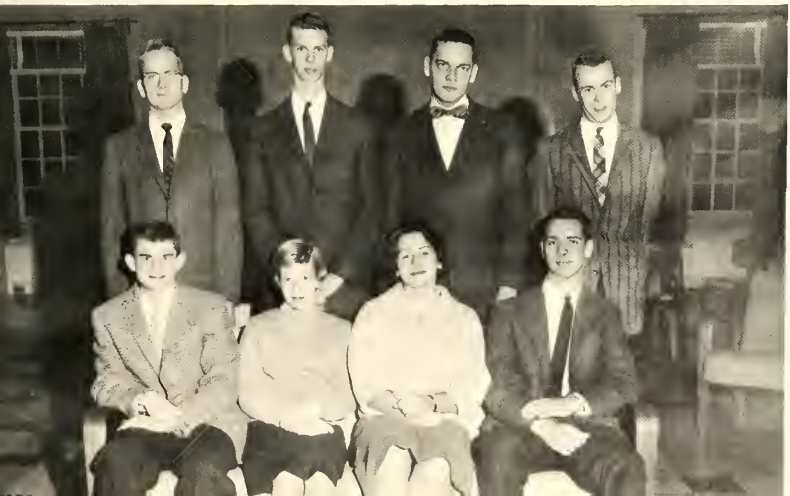
Westminster Fellowship

Canterbury Club

The Episcopalian students join in the Canterbury Club. First row are Miles Frost, Judy Tyndall, Sally Lipscomb, and Joe Brown. Second row are Bill Rhodes, Chris Naylor, Bob Burns, and Grafflin Cook.



The newest organization on campus is the Guilford College Collegiate Civitan Club in association with Hamilton Lakes. The group elected Tom Liverman as their first president. Several of the charter members are, first row, Bob Marsh, Dick Wiley, Freddy Homer, Lester Zimmerman, Tommy Kemp. Second row are John Meroney, Barry Foster, Lee Andrews, Walter Blackman, A. T. Barbee. Third row are Jordan Washburn, Jim Gardner, Tom O'Briant, Earl Jones.

State Student Legislature

These students were elected by the student body to represent Guilford at the State Student Legislature held annually in Raleigh and designed to acquaint students with governmental procedures. They are, left to right, John Hewlett, Larry Holland, Chris Suiter, Jamie Matthews, Joyce Hannaum, and Howard Walton.

"Surprise" is the scene from Mousetrap, the fall production, starring Mary Wheeler, Jonathon Potter, and Bill Bloom.

Revelers Club

With Graham Allen as president and Virginia Honea as secretary, the Revelers Club has done much this year to improve the lighting and stage equipment so necessary in play production.

Spanish Club

German Club

1958 QUAKERS IN REVIEW

The 1958 season marked the third for Herb Appenzeller since he took over the reins of head coach at Guilford. With his staff of Stuart Maynard, Robert Shoaf, and Herman Clark he worked the Quakers hard for the '58 season, and that work reaped good results. The Quakers ground out three wins while losing six, and with the breaks coming the way of the Quakers, the record could have easily been reversed. The gridders possessed a squad of 36 players, with a letterman for each position. Veterans started at each position, with the exception of tackle Walter Wiggins and halfback Tom Bowers. With an experienced starting eleven and a good bench the coaching staff looked toward the season with a strong hint of optimism. The Quakers were to roll up three shut-out wins, one of them being a welcome homecoming victory. They upset the "experts" with one good showing right after another. The Quakers were on the upswing during the season, and that trend continues to hold true. Guilford lost only four seniors off the 1958 grid team. With the remainder of the squad still intact, and with incoming talent the Quakers will continue to climb up the ladder toward the North State higher echelon. The 1958 campaign was a good example of this climbing, and the rate of ascent during the season was good. This word, "Optimism", is a catching word . . . and so is winning. It has become contagious around the Guilford campus.

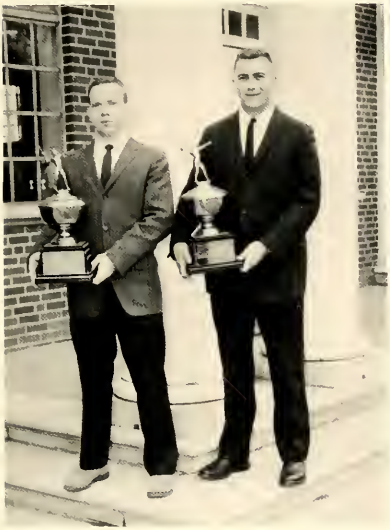
Through the 1958 season the Quakers played nine tilts, one more than during the campaign of '57 . . . the first tilt was with Guilford's traditional rivals, the Fighting Christians of Elon . . . the battlefield was the Senior High gridiron . . . the game was hard fought, and one that could have gone either way . . . but the Christians managed to pull out a 14-7 win . . . the Quaker's only TD came on a 50-yard jaunt by Brodie Baker after he had intercepted a pass . . . Wayne Henley, Tom Price, Carl Opauski, Larry Chesson, and Daryl Allen were the Quaker mainstays . . . following an open date Guilford played host to the Bridgewater Eagles, and the Eagles looked like sparrows before the game was over . . . Sid Teachey got the Quakers off running with a beautiful 65-yard punt return . . . Bill Huber, Bob Smith, and Tom Bowers also scored as Guilford routed the Eagles by a 28-0 margin . . . Henley, Opauski, Allen, and Chesson again were outstanding, along with Jim Stutts . . . then came the big Homecoming affair with the Emory and Henry Wasps, and the Quakers were picked to lose by two touchdowns . . . but the outcome of the game proved different as Guilford won its first Homecoming game since 1954, this time by a 14-0 score . . . a Baker to Bob Holloway 26-yard aerial accounted for the first tally, and a plunge by Lester Parker gave the Quakers the other . . . a third TD was nullified . . . John Meroney and Bowers sparked Guilford offensively, while Stutts, Opauski, and Allen were outstanding defensively . . . Allen drew special praise for three pass interceptions . . . another invador to Hobbs Field bought defeat . . . the Lenoir Rhyne Bears were again strong, and left the field with a 30-0 verdict . . . a visit to Hampden-Sydney resulted in a heartbreaking loss . . . the Quakers were defeated 6-0 after driving to the Tiger nine on one occasion and to the seven on another . . . Meroney was the main cog in the Guilford offensive thrusts there were thwarted once by a stout Tiger defense and another time by a costly fumble . . . a trip to the mountains to face the Appalachian Mountaineers resulted in another "oh, so close, but not enough" game . . . the Apps finally won by 13-6, with the Quakers on the ASTC 13 as the final whistle sounded . . . Meroney went over from the eight for the Guilford counter . . . Opsuki, Chesson, Allen, and Stutts again were defensive stalwarts . . . the final home game saw the Catawba Indians coming to the campus, and leaving with a 34-16 win . . . the Quakers came alive in the last period to score two lightning fast TD's with Bowers and Meroney racking up the points . . . Opauski, Allen, and Chesson, who perhaps played his finest game of the season, were outstanding performers on defense . . . another journey to the scenic mountains of North Carolina gave the Quakers a 15-0 win against the Catamounts of Western Carolina . . . Guilford completely dominated action as Meroney scampered across for both of the Quaker touchdowns, with Bowers and Jack Holley giving him much offensive help . . . Allen, Meroney, and Sam Cutler led the defensive efforts of the Gray and Red . . . in the final game of the season, a tilt rescheduled from September 27 to Thanksgiving, East Carolina downed the Quakers by 20-0 . . . although the Quaker offense was stymied by the Pirate defense, the defense of the invading Quakers was something to talk about . . . even though the defense gave up three touchdowns, it still stopped ECC eight times within the 30, and once on the one . . . Henley and Stutts headed up the defense for Guilford . . . and with the playing of the East Carolina game the campaign of 1958 drew to a close.

Halfback Johnny Meroney (11) is bought down after short yardage by two big Catawba linemen. Tom Bowers, on the ground, attempted to block out one of the Indians.

Gridiron Quakers named to the 1958 North State all-star eleven were tackle Wayne Henley and halfback John Meroney. Both were outstanding for the Quakers throughout the campaign, with each of the two getting stronger as the season progressed.



Senior Quakers, guard Larry Chesson and center Daryl Allen, gained recognition to the North State dream team as honorable mentions.

The 1958-59 was a long season for both the players and the coach. As the season progressed, it was evident that a lack of experience and height would be a deterrent to the Quakers. Before the season was over the Quakers had won but five while losing 17. Coach Shoaf, who did a creditable job with the material at hand, used two freshmen, one senior, and a pair of sophomores in his starting line-up. The key to the team was Ted Tilghman, a sophomore who was an honorable mention on the North State star squad. Tilghman led the team in scoring and rebounding, and is sure to make the league team before he retires from Guilford. Bob Young would have meant a difference to the outcome of the season, but an injured knee at the first of practice held him out the first half of the season, and was not able to go at full speed when he returned to action. Buddy Key contributed a lot of experience and ability to the cagers. Jon Burwell and Don Lineberry are a pair of first year men that showed by their performance that they will be rugged individuals before they leave this college. On the bench were sophomores Charlie Clark, Jim Lancaster, and freshmen Conrad Parker, Brooks Hayworth, and Ray Sharpe. One thing can be said about the 1958-59 version of the Quakers—the potential is there, and for sure that 5-17 record will be improved on when the next cage season rolls around.

Quaker Jon Burwell (11) goes up after a drive for two points against the Panthers of High Point. Quaker Buddy Key (40) is surrounded by a trio of Panthers. Guilford lost the game to the powerful HP quint by a 74-64 margin.

The star of the 1958-59 Quakers, Ted Tilghman, hits for two points in the 74-64 loss to the HP Panthers on the Guilford home court.

Freshman prospect, Don Lineberry, goes into the air on a jump shot in an attempt to tally two points for the home-standing Quakers. Coming up from behind is Quaker Charlie Clark (15).

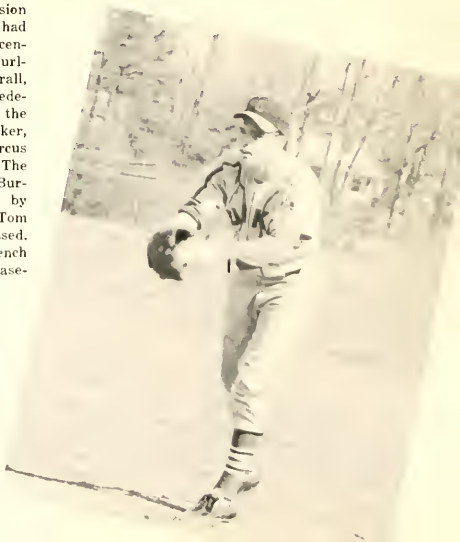
The 1959 Diamondmen

As far as playing for Guilford goes the 1959 version of the diamond squad, excluding the pitching corp, had five rookies—first base, second base, third base, center and right field. There were only two veteran hurlers returning from the '58 squad. But, taken overall, this spring's baseball team was better than its predecessor. There was more power at the plate in the persons of Buddy Key, Tommy Johnson, Brodie Baker, and Jim Stutts, plus such capable stickers as Marcus Allred, Bob Smith, Carey Reece, and Barry Cook. The addition of Jim Childress, Charlie Little, and Dick Burrows, along with an occasional stint on the hill by Baker, bolstered the mound staff headed up by Tom O'Briant and Danny Carr as the season progressed. Those two factors, along with a strengthened bench gave the Quakers a good representation in the baseball world of 1959 North State action.



Southpaw hurler, Danny Carr, toes the rubber as he makes his move toward the plate.

Graduation hit the track events fairly hard, but the field events held their own as the 1959 campaign got underway. The weight men were led by returnees Doug Kerr and Dudley Cox. Frank Bailey came on to take up the slack left by the ineligibility of Harold James. Tom Bowers led the Quakers in the dashes. Dave Hardin was the mainstay in the mile an two mile runs. And others were on hand to fill in gaps. After an early victory over the thin clads of Pfeiffer the Quakers got into full swing for the remainder of the spring. And before the season was completed the Quakers proved to be a tough team to defeat.

1959 Quaker Racqueters

Southpaw swinging Jordan Washburn starts to bring his racquet down for a forehand smash near the net.

For the 1959 campaign in the tennis world coach Shoaf had a young but talented squad, and had a freshman to become the number one man on the six-man team. Jordan Washburn and Long Vu were the only returnees from last year's edition. Coming in to take over the slot Washburn held last year was freshman Brooks Hayworth, and three newcomers took over the third, fourth, and sixth positions. However, as the season moved along, the players had a hard time keeping the position they started with at the beginning of the campaign. In early matches the Quakers won easily over the Whirlies from Senior High, lost to a good Quantico Marine team, and swept over High Point. From there on Shoaf's racquet men moved to another successful season in the world of tennis.

1959 Quaker Links

"Oly" Brewer shows good form as he begins his swing into a drive from the tee.

For the recent golf campaign the Quakers had three linkers back from last year in the persons of "Oly" Brewer, Jim Anderson, and Bob Byrum. Buck Batchelor came out to fill out the "Big Four" for the stick swingers, and sometimes throwers. Batchelor began the season playing the top spot on the team, but Brewer, with consistently good scores, soon knocked Batchelor off his perch, and gained possession himself. Following a win to open the 12-match slate, the linkers lost three straight before they could again find the right range and go on to have a good season.

Homecoming

It was a perfect day—a sunny fall afternoon, decorations in every dorm, clever floats, a beautiful court, and Guilford with the highest score!

"Dr. Burrows' Lecture on the 'Defeat of the Wasps'" won first prize of the girls' dormitory decorations.

The Freshman Class won first prize with their float, complete with a giant chicken and eggs.

To all the students for your cooperation in picture taking and general information in identifying pictures and in writing copy. Without you our annual would still be a dream, not a reality.

To the faculty and administration for your advice and help in numerous ways.

To the entire staff. I've fussed at times, but I do thank you everyone for all you have done in helping me publish the 1959 Quaker.

To Dwight, for the endless pictures, for running all over the campus with your camera equipment slung over your shoulder, for the late hours spent developing and printing shots, for taking the best pictures yet, for being a right-hand man and taking over half the work, special thanks to you.

To the section editors, Jerri, Janet, Gaye, Kaye, and Sid, for making the work easier in such a big way and doing a wonderful job.

To Anne in keeping our book straight, in handling our requisitions, and taking charge of the sponsor letters.

To Doug and Marilyn for the copy and cutlines which I could never have done as well.

To Nancy for the pictures you identified . . . to Carolyn for typing the senior statistics . . . to Peggy for the marvelous portrait of Dr. Burrows . . . to Jerri for your artwork . . . to Margo for collecting snapshots and writing captions . . . to Lee, Marion, Patty, Shirley, Pat, Ann, Barbara, Sara Lou, Karen, Betty for typing when I desperately needed you.

To Mr. Parsons for helping us over the rough spots and trying to keep our finances from becoming too muddled.

To Colonna Studios and Mr. Frank Callen for the individual pictures.

To Delmar and Mr. Thomas Smith for your suggestions and guidance which has proved to be invaluable.

To all of you, I thank you for all you have done. I enjoyed it so much, but without your help this book of memories would never be in our hands. In the years to come, may these pages remind you of the friendships we have made at Guilford.
